JOINS BAND TO GET INTO NAVY

Jesse Pickard Learning to Play Trombone That he Might go Sailing Away.

BROTHER IS NOW IN THE NAVY

Tried to Discourage His Younger Brother After Planting the Seed of Desire in Him.

Every time Jesse Pickard, a member of the boy's brass band here blows a clear note on a trombone which he plays, he dreams of being one step nearer the bounding main, where his ambitions are now centered. Pickard longs to join the navy. He is but seventeen years of age, and is a "little off color" in measurements and requirements. In such cases the only route a boy can take is to become a musician and join the navy band. That Pickard has decided to do.

His brother, Everett Pickard is now in the navy, and but recently joined the squadron at the Brooklyn navy yards after spending a furlough of twenty days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Pickard, in North Benjamin street. Pickard was one of the fortunate few who joined the navy last year and was taken from a training ship and sent on a cruise around the world, in the greatest feat ever accomplished by a fleet.

When he was home his younger brother sat awe-stricken, and with admiration and envy flashing from his eyes heard his brother recount the many, many interesting stories and incidents of the voyage. It was then that an unquenchable desire was born in him to emulate his brother. He was discouraged by the elder brother, who, while he was pleased with his experiences, said he would advise any young man to stay away from the navy. He said he intended to buy his way out when he came within a year of the expiration of his four-year enlistment.

Scott County Farmer Was Host of Two Rushville Men While on Hunting Trip.

SHOT DOWN BY DRUNKEN MAN

Reports in the metropolitan newspapers a few days ago contained a story of the murder of a Scott county farmer, who was shot down and killed by another farmer in a drunken condition. It was learned that the unfortunate victim is the farmer with whom Ex-county Clerk William Posey and Frank Bender stayed when they went on hunting trips to Scott county on several occasions. They were grieved to hear the news for they declare the fellow was a capital good fellow.

HAS BUSINESS IN SOUTHWEST

John M. Stevens, ex-mayor, and one of the leading attorneys here, has just closed a deal with the law firm of Stevens & Carson for the sale of his complete office and good will.

Mr. Stevens will leave in a short time for Oklahoma, where he is interested in the opening of the Government reservation for old soldiers. He expects to be away about three months and during his absence Stevens & Carson will have charge of his legal business.

It will be remembered that they but recently graduated from the Indiana Law School; and since the first of January have had their office in the Green building. The young men have made a good start in their profession; the genial disposition of Albert Stevens and the intense earnestness of George Carson, making a combination that will bring success. Each is well versed in the law and hold the confidence and best wishes of a host of friends.

GRAND THEATRE NOT CONDEMNED

But State Inspector Has Ordered a Number of Changes to be Made.

FIRE ESCAPE EQUIPMENT

With Door on South Side Must be Installed—Thirty Days Extension Given Manager Carr

Persistent rumors were afloat this week to the effect that the Grand theater had been condemned by the State building inspectors and an order issued to vacate. Manager Grand M. Carr was out of the city yesterday and it was impossible to affirm or have the rumor denied. He was seen today and from information given by him, it was learned how the rumor was given birth.

When Deputy Factory and Building Inspector John Fitzgibbons was in this city recently he made investigation of conditions at the Grand theater (the old Melodeon hall) and ordered some improvements made. Among other things he ordered a fire escape, a swinging iron ladder apparatus constructed on the southwest corner of the building and a door made of one of the windows. Other demands were made such as covering all the stage woodwork with fire-proof paint and the scenery with a similar material. Barrels of water with buckets nearby were ordered placed on the stage. A revision of the seating plan of the theater was asked, calling for the removal of about twenty chairs.

Manager Carr was given thirty days to have the improvements made. The time is up next Saturday night, and Manager Carr, not being able to have the owners make the necessary changes, was getting ready to vacate on that date. However he will remain at the Grand theater, for the time being at least, as State Inspector Blakely gave him an extension of thirty days when he called on him in person yesterday.

The building is not unsafe, but the improvements were ordered in accord with the new law that every precaution for the safety of the people might be taken.

RECEIVES A REAL ALLIGATOR BY MAIL

Gilbert Meredith Sent Small Member of Crocodile Family From Florida.

MADE THE TRIP IN FIVE DAYS

Miss Lucile Meredith received today by mail a live alligator from her father, Gilbert Meredith, who is employed in Miami, Florida. It took five days for the animal to make the journey, and it was almost fatigued upon its arrival at the Meredith home in West Ninth street. The small member of the crocodile family measures only eight inches in length and is a promising youngster. This late addition to the Meredith household will no doubt attract many curious visitors to get a sight of the inhabitant of Florida waters.

Partly cloudy tonight and Friday. Warmer in central portion tonight.

LOCAL BOYS TO BE FOUND IN LINE UP

"Windy" Morgan and Eddie Carter Will Play With Connersville Team This Year.

HALTERMAN TO DO TWIRLING

Young Pitcher Promises to Equal His Record of Last Season—Has Been Training.

Earl Halterman, the Moscow flinger, will pitch the first game of the season for the Connersville team on Sunday, April 25, says the Shelbyville Republican. Young Halterman achieved an enviable record while with the Connersville team last year and his many friends say that he will again duplicate the performance. He has been practicing for several weeks at his home in Moscow and has all of the soreness that comes with the first spring training worked out of his left wing. Halterman had terrific speed last season, but it is believed that he will have still more control of his fast out curve, but when he does get control of this he will be ready for minor league company.

The opponents of the Connersville team in the first game will be the boys representing the Atkins Saw Works of Indianapolis. This team is composed of good players and has played on the Shelbyville lot on more than one occasion.

Charles Harecourt, also of Moscow, will be given a try-out at third base by the Connersville team this season. "Windy" Morgan and Eddie Carter of Rushville will be found in the lineup of the Fayette county team this year. Both are well known in this city.

BOYS INDULGING IN BAD PRACTICE

Crowd of Young Men Spend Time in Bumping Their Way to Other Cities.

REMAIN AWAY SEVERAL DAYS

Much complaint has been registered of late by the citizens over the city of a certain crowd of boys who are spending their time beating their way on freight trains to different cities. Probably seven or eight of them will go in a bunch and at times they will remain away from home two or three days when their parents know nothing of their whereabouts. They most frequently go to Hamilton, Anderson, or Louisville, points that are easily accessible with the railroads that pass through this city. Several of the boys went to Louisville Tuesday evening and Wednesday morning the father of one of the lads in the crowd was out on the war path and intended to do all that he could to stop the practice. The numerous accidental deaths, that have resulted from bumping a ride on the train should prove an excellent example for the wayward boys.

GIVEN A START BY A LOCAL BOY

Jack Surat, Boy Baritone Was "Discovered" in a Toledo Church by Willard Kincaid.

WENT UP FAST IN PROFESH

Young Lad Made Good in Vaudeville and Later in Musical Comedy When Voice Changed.

Jack Surat, the boy baritone at the Palace theater, who has a big, full and well developed voice for a young chap, and who has more than made good since he came here, owes much of his early success to Willard Kincaid, the popular and well known musician who died in Rushville about two years ago. At the time of his death Kincaid was fast climbing the ladder of success in the business end of the music world, and was the third man, in point of position, with the big firm of Jerome Remick, the largest music publishers in the world. Kincaid had charge of a number of the Remick stores in the middle west cities and under his direction about twenty-five piano players and an equal number of singers were employed. He always kept his ear to the ground for talent. At Toledo, Ohio, he chanced to hear of a good voice in the Trinity church, where boys and young men were employed to sing in the choir. There he heard Jack Surat. At that time the boy was in knee breeches and had a soprano voice. Kincaid met him the next day and gave him a try-out at the big Milner store. The boy made good at once. Not only with Kincaid, but with the head of the firm who heard him soon afterwards as the papers were giving him no end of press notices. Remick took him on to the main office in Detroit where he sang for professional people who came to look over new songs for their acts and shows. There Surat met and became acquainted with many of the leading popular music composers of the country, for the Remick office is a rendezvous for them.

The firm sent the lad with the big voice to one large city after another. He was a hit everywhere. Surat got the vaudeville bee and doubled up with a dancing girl and for several months played on the big circuit. When his soprano choir boy voice began to change he lost his power of entertaining, but immediately took up stage dancing and got a partner who could sing. It was just a few months ago that his singing voice began to return, but when it did it was clear, matured, well rounded baritone. Critics who have heard him sing, and know the circumstances surrounding his voice predict a bright future for the lad.

Surat was more than pleased when he learned Willard Kincaid was a former resident here. When he was with "The Broken Idol" the big Whitney musical comedy, he sang for an encore—out of gratitude to the one who gave him his first professional start—the song "Sleepy Lou," which Kincaid composed and gave to a girl working in one of the St. Louis stores. She made quite a sum from the royalties; for nearly a year, while the song was selling, she drew down about eight dollars a week from it. Kincaid composed a number of other pieces, but as it was an unwritten law of the firm that those in a position to push the sale of music—men occupying executive and prominent business positions—could not have stuff published he always gave his efforts to others.

Surat says he is going to try and get a number of the Kincaid compositions and songs and have a Remick Night at the Palace theater soon.

400,000 BOTTLES OF RHEUMALINE LAST WEEK OF MARCH

The last week of March saw the close of an epoch in the history of the medical world. Four hundred thousand bottles of Rheumaline were sold throughout the country. Never before since man first ailed has so much of a single preparation been sold in that length of time. Several reasons were the cause. One was that Rheumaline is now recognized as the most effective cure known for rheumatism, and as that disease has the strongest foothold of any in the United States, naturally there will be a greater demand for a sure relief. Another reason is that Rheumaline is the only rheumatic remedy that will not injure the stomach nor affect the heart action. If any so-called cure gives you any relief it will either knock your stomach out, hurt your heart or enslave you by its opiates. Rheumaline is an honest medicine. It is made with the steadfast and fixed purpose of curing rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica, neuralgia, gout and kidney, liver, bladder, stomach and blood troubles caused by uric acid, and from the thousands of pronounced successes it enjoys it has accomplished its purposes. No fortune is made in its manufacture, and neither Lytle's Drug Store nor The Rheumaline company are reaping huge profits, but both are enjoying the more lasting blessings of helping their fellowman and relieving his misery and pain. Rheumaline Capsules ease the suffering and make the system more susceptible to Rheumaline's action. When Rheumaline does not have the desired laxative effect, Rheumaline Tablets should be used, as they act in conjunction with Rheumaline. Think! Four Hundred Thousand. Do you believe it was thrown away? Don't be the last—go at once to Lytle's Drug Store and procure it. It removes the cause.

At HOME FURNISHING COMPANY'S

QUIT BUSINESS SALE,

Rushville, Indiana,

THE NATIONAL SALVAGE COMPANY

Now Selling the Stock Rapidly

Never in Rushville's history of merchandising were such immense crowds of people seen at any sale heretofore. The Home Furnishing Company's entire stock of Furniture, Carpets and Rugs, which is now in the hands of the National Salvage Company, and must be sold inside of ten days' time, has attracted the people of Rushville and vicinity from a radius of fifty to one hundred miles.

The Home Furnishing Company's Big Store, their entire three floors have been literally crowded with eager buyers since the opening day of this Quit Business Sale, and the many extra salespeople have worked from morning until night supplying the vast crowds that are attending this Closing Out Quit Business Sale, which is proving to be a regular feast for the public, as the sale is being given right in the height of the season, when you are thinking of replenishing your home needs.

Such a great sacrifice sale on Furniture, Carpets, Rugs, and Household Goods was never given in this vicinity before, and its equal will probably never occur again. The manager of the National Salvage Company says he has taken a knife and cut the prices square in two in order to sell the stock quickly and close it out within ten days' time. Wholesale cost of the goods has been entirely disregarded.

Their reason for making this tremendous sacrifice and giving the profits direct to the people is that they do not wish to move, pack or ship a dollars worth of this stock. That is why such low prices are quoted, in order to sell the entire stock in Rushville, during the ten days of this Closing Out, Quit Business Sale of the Home Furnishing Company's $45,000 stock of Furniture, Carpets, Rugs, Household Goods, Fixtures, etc. It is certainly a rare opportunity for the people of Rushville and this section of the State to secure their household needs, especially so at this time, as it is right at the time of the year when you need these goods the most, and are thinking of replenishing your home and household needs.

Hundreds upon hundreds of people are now availing themselves of this great Closing Out, Sacrifice, Quit Business Sale of the Home Furnishing Company's entire stock at Rushville, Ind.,—and well they may,—as the prices quoted are less than the actual cost of the lumber, not figuring the workmanship to produce the goods.

This certainly is a time for Furniture and Carpet buying when one dollar will go as far as three would ordinarily.

Today the crowds were tremendous, and tomorrow, Friday, April 16th, and Saturday, April 17th, will witness A STUPENDOUS JAM OF PEOPLE in attendance at this Big Sale. Many people have actually attended this sale from a distance of one hundred miles, and were more than repaid for their trip, as such a sacrifice on Furniture, Carpets, Rugs, Household Goods such a sale as this is proving to be, comes but once in a lifetime. The savings to you are from $25 to $250. Money saved is money earned.

At the way the stocks were hauled away yesterday, and today the first two days of the sale, this entire $45,000 stock should be easily sold inside of the next eight days of the sale. From remarks heard upon all sides this sale is proving to be a veritable feast to the public, who are never slow in snapping up great bargains. The crowds attending this sale daily are something wonderful, and it is really hard to imagine where all the people come from. Low prices is the magnet that is drawing the big crowds of people to this sale daily.

The National Salvage Company have instructions to sell the entire stock, formerly belonging to the Home Furnishing Company at unheard of low prices, with instructions to disregard all former cost of the goods. Use good common sense, make haste, don't delay. Think what this sale means to you, and act quickly. You cannot afford to miss this sacrifice. If the saving of money means anything to you, attend this sale immediately and benefit accordingly. There will be terrific selling today, tomorrow, and the first big Saturday, April 17th, and every day, until the close of the sale, on April 24th.

The Home Furnishing Company's Big Store will remain open until 11 o'clock Saturday night, in order to accommodate the public. Be sure you find the right place, The Home Furnishing Company's Big Store at Third and Main Streets, Rushville, Ind. The entire stock is now being closed out by the National Salvage Company at 47c on the dollar at Rushville, Ind.

INTO NEW PLAN

Municipal Government by Commission Proposed.

TEXAS FINDS IT JUST THE THING

Report of the Legislative Committee That Went to Texas to Look into the Galveston Plan Came Back With a Glowing Report of the Benefits to be Derived From Such a System of Municipal Government.—It is Reported That Texas is Enthusiastic Over New Plan.

Springfield, Ill., April 15.—The senate sub-committee of five members of the committee on municipalities, who went to Texas to look into the commission plan of city government, made its report to the entire committee through Senator John Dailey, of Peoria. The report reviews the finding of the sub-committee at Galveston, Houston and Dallas, the towns visited and its own conclusions, which terminate thus:

"In every city we visited we found the almost unanimous sentiment of the citizens favoring the commission form of government. The enthusiasm for it is hardly describable. Extremists have gone so far as to favor the abolition of the legislature of Texas and substitute therefor a commission of five to govern the state of Texas. Without doubt there has been a marked improvement in the conduct of the affairs of these cities under this plan of municipal government. Able, fearless, progressive and conscientious men are in charge of public affairs in these cities. Under the stimulus of great municipal improvements, conducted in the same manner as the affairs of great private enterprises, these cities are entering upon an era of great prosperity, with full confidence of their citizens in the integrity of their public officials and in the efficacy of the commission form of government."

FINE ENDURANCE TEST

These Western Athletes Will Race to Top of Mountain.

Pasadena, Cal., April 15.—Crack athletes from all over the west are entered in today's race to the top of Mount Wilson, north of this city. The unique character of the event and its great success last year have aroused much interest among the sports and others attracted by endurance contests and have drawn here runners desirous of making the 6,000 foot ascent in quicker time than that made by Joe King last year. There is little doubt that King's record, 1 hour 25 minutes 30 seconds, will be broken today.

Last year's race consisted of the ascent to the top of the mountain and the descent, but this year the ascent alone will count. The descent is considered too dangerous for men trying to make time. On the way up and down Mount Wilson the runners cross numerous streams and wind around canyons over 3,000 feet deep.

At least thirty men will face the starter and will be sent away at intervals of three minutes. Only amateur athletes are eligible to enter the race. The winners will receive medals.

WILL PASS MOMBASA BY

People of African Port Get News That Spoils Their Plans.

Mombasa, British East Africa, April 15.—A cablegram received here from Theodore Roosevelt, declining an invitation to attend a public reception and a dinner, makes it evident that he has decided not to stop at Mombasa. Therefore, there is much disappointment here. Mr. Roosevelt asks in this message that he be met at the pier by his special train and conveyed direct to the ranch of Sir Alfred Pease, on the Athi river, where he will be Sir Alfred's guest for the first fortnight's stay in the protectorate. The steamer Admiral is expected here at daybreak of April 21.

Easy Victory for Gotch.

Dexter Pavilion, Chicago, April 15.—Frank Gotch, of Humboldt, Iowa, succeeded in retaining his title to the world's championship by defeating Yousif Mahmoud, of Bulgaria, in a fast and furious wrestling match. Gotch won both falls with crotch and half-Nelson holds in 8 and 9 minutes 10 seconds.

A Ban on Bucketshops.

Chicago, April 15.—The knell of the bucketshops in Chicago has been sounded by Chief of Police Shippey. Upon evidence furnished by the Board of Trade, detectives were sent out to notify nine bucketshops to close up. If they do not comply with the chief's orders prosecution will follow.

Wheat Still Going Up.

Chicago, April 15.—Wheat for May delivery sold on the board of trade Wednesday at 129 per bushel, while the July option touched 118½, both figures being new high marks for the season.

MYSTERY SURROUNDS THIS DOUBLE SUICIDE

Two Unknown Young Women Kill Themselves Aboard Ship.

New York, April 15.—Mystery surrounds the identity of two young American women who committed suicide on the Lucania. Neither left any address with the Cunard line officials, who say that apparently they were not acquainted before sailing, as they booked passage separately and were assigned to the same state room merely by accident.

Passenger Agent Walker, of the Cunard line, says that a woman about thirty years old engaged second cabin accommodations the day before the vessel sailed. She gave the name Margaret Clarke, but no address. The other berth in her cabin remained unassigned until just before the ship sailed on Wednesday morning when a young woman who said she was Miss Helen Miller rushed into the office at the pier and asked for a second cabin ticket. She was accompanied by her brother, who said it was important that she sail on the Lucania. He appeared much relieved when a place was found for her.

According to the Cunard lines advices, the address "66 Clinton street, Brooklyn" was found among Miss Clarke's effects. The address, however, gives no clue as to her identity, as this number is the building of the Long Island Historical Society. No one in the building knew of any woman bearing the name given by the suicide.

Miss Clarke shot herself Thursday, the second day out, while in her cabin. Her companion was greatly agitated over the occurrence and four days later took her own life in the same manner. It is thought that she had been mentally unbalanced by her friend's tragic death.

A SOUTHERN INCIDENT

Young Georgian Meets Death Together With His Victim.

Shellman, Ga., April 15.—Particularly gruesome are the details connected with the return of the body of Ross Manior to his father, J. B. Manior. Manior was killed last Friday night. It is stated, in an encounter with a negro, Alfred Iverson, whom Manior and his companions had attempted to whip. The members of the mob carried away the lifeless body of their comrade, after he and the negro had been killed. Manior's father was told to place a coffin in a certain spot. He complied and the decomposed body of young Manior, half clad, was found in the coffin when the father returned. The members of the mob are unknown.

All Quiet in Constantinople.

Constantinople, April 15.—After the stirring events in the Turkish capital, the successful formation of the cabinet and the issue of an imperial proclamation ordaining the observance of the Sheri laws and the preservation of the constitution served to bring about a comparatively peaceful situation here. The city is quiet; the troops have returned to their barracks and the crowds in the Stamboul quarter have returned to their homes. Confidence is gradually returning.

CONFERENCE

Minority Senators Meet to Map Out Program.

WILL DEMAND AN INCOME TAX

This Demand Will be Made in the Form of an Amendment to the Tariff Bill and Will be Insisted on by the Democratic Senators, Who Will Also Stand for a Substantial Reduction in Schedules.—Lack of Harmony Displayed on the Point of the "Local Issue" Feature of the Tariff.

Washington, April 15.—For more than four hours the Democratic members of the senate conferred in an effort to agree upon a policy toward tariff legislation. At the end of that time Senator Culberson, the minority leader, announced that the Democrats had agreed to support an income tax amendment and to stand for substantial reductions in schedules and particularly for a decrease in the rates on necessities of life.

The conference was not binding, but regardless of this fact it was not entirely harmonious. Some of the senators present admitted frankly that they would ask for protection for the industries of their states. Senator Stone spoke in favor of his program for independence for the Filipinos after fifteen years and absolute free trade with the islands during that period. Senator Foster was opposed to free trade with any of the colonies. Neither of these senators, it was apparent, could have obtained a majority of the Democrats for their proposition had a vote been taken.

Only on one question was the conference agreed and that was the income tax amendment. No details were arranged in the program to fight for reductions in rates all along the line. The conference was adjourned until Friday as all of those present agreed that they were not sufficiently acquainted with the bill to pass judgment intelligently upon it.

Talk of Senator Shively, of Indiana, as the leader of the Democratic forces of the senate during the tariff fight is being heard and it is known positively that there has been a partial canvass to ascertain whether it would be agreeable to a majority of the Democratic senators to have the Indiana senator to perform the functions as leader while the tariff fight is on in place of Senator Culberson, of Texas, the regularly elected leader of the majority.

WASHINGTON CLEANING UP

Women at the Capital Take Lead in Good Movement.

Washington, April 15.—Today is "clean up" day in the national capital. The women of Washington, determined to show that the littered condition of some of the streets is not their fault, decided some time ago to devote part of today to cleaning up the stray bits of paper that are eyesores to the residents with proper civic pride.

Accordingly, at 9 o'clock this morning and later, the spectacle was presented of many well dressed women in some of the finest residential districts personally picking up the papers in the streets and parks near their homes. The movement was headed by the Twentieth Century club, which embraces in its membership many women of Washington's best known families.

Harry Axtell Convicted.

Bloomington, Ind., April 15.—Harry A. Axtell, until a year ago one of the financial leaders of Bloomington, slept last night in a cell at the county jail and, in all probability, will have to go to the Michigan City prison within the next ten days to begin a sentence of from two to fourteen years for embezzlement of more than $38,000 of the funds of the Real Estate Building and Loan Association during the ten years he was its secretary. After deliberating just five hours the jury returned a verdict of guilty after a trial that had lasted eight days.

Greensburg Review: The Indianapolis News says in a headline, "No trouble to get into a saloon on Sunday." Is this a criticism or an advertisement?

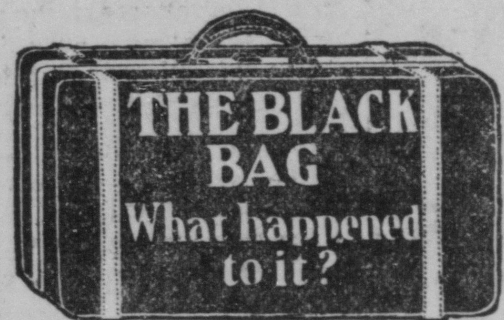

Of course the base ball clubs would have good weather for their opening game. Funny how rain seems to be the choice of the Lord on big religious occasions.

Says the Greensburg Review: No Republican governor, whether he was a lawyer or not, ever used thirty-six hundred dollars of the people's money to employ a legal clerk. Gov. Marshall is said to be a good lawyer, but he has found it necessary to hire Burt New of North Vernon as a legal adviser at thirty-six hundred dollars a year. And still we hear talk about Democratic economy in State affairs!

By all means the county commissioners should make an appropriation—which would be a mere bagatelle—for sprinkling around the court house square. The merchants are obliged to pay the entire amount. This is unfair for the offices are benefitted and the county should pay half the bill. It is the prevailing custom in nine out of ten counties. Sprinkling the streets with oil never materialize unless the county dads loosen their purse strings. And it is only fair and equitable that they should.

One of the most important things that a man owes to his family is cheerfulness. He should cast all trouble away when he comes to his home. He is a selfish being, who, having trouble in his trade or calling or profession, always brings his trouble home for the purpose of making everyone else miserable. There is no bravery or manliness in that kind of a thing, no thoughtfulness for others, happiness, no trust in God that all will be for the best. The best pleasure is the purest pleasure. There are roses without thorns. The busy man must have some pleasure, some recreation, some relaxation. He ought not to have it on the street with gossiping chatters, or at the gambling table with the dissolute or wanton. He ought to do something in which his family could have a part. It ought to be pure, elevating, stimulating. The man that is so considerate and equipoise, that he will make this matter no secondary affair but give it the best thought of his life will make a better man, a moral citizen, more considerate husband, more loving father. He will find his family ties strengthened, so that as his children grow to manhood and womanhood, no place will be so attractive to them as the fireside at home. These are the pleasures that remain, that do not wither with time, that do not grow bitter with the years.

BOYLES PLANNED THE MILROY CHURCH

Former Greensburg Boy Had Pleasure of Seeing His Work Accepted.

M. E. CHURCH TO COST $15,000

Harry Boyles, a former Greensburg boy, now an architect in the employ of the Schopbeall contracting firm of Evansville, has the satisfaction of seeing his work accepted for the new Methodist church to be built at Milroy, says the Greensburg News.

Mr. Boyles drew up the plans and specifications and they so pleased the building committee that they were at once accepted. Mr. Boyle's firm bid on the work and were successful in landing the contract. The new church, according to the specifications, will cost about $15,000 and is to be a handsome and up-to-date structure.

Here's Where the Fun Comes In

The Black Hand has been found in Rushville. The first threat is made on the editor of the Daily Republican and "replying to theirs of the 14th inst. we beg to say that we will not pay the ransom demanded." The article to which members of the society took exceptions passed by without the editor's notice and was written by the society reporter. Following is the letter received:

Editor of Daily Republican:

Dear Sir:—Feeling that we have been mistreated and being known as the Dish Draggers Quartette of Bandits, whereby demand that you leave $5000 under a cracked plate in Conroy's restaurant on or before the striking of the hour of 12 o'clock Thursday midnight. On failure to do so your hash is cooked and the Republican will be minus a good man.

FACTORY SOLD AT PUBLIC AUCTION

Warfield & Wilson Property Brought $4385 This Morning—About
One-Fourth the Value.

WERE ONLY TWO BIDDERS

The Warfield & Wilson furniture factory was sold today at public auction to J. M. Amos, living south of this city, and Alvin Moor of North Main Street. The ground, building, and machinery brought $4385 and it is said that this will not equal one-fourth the value of the property. Lon Stewart was the only other bidder. He started the price at $2500, and remained in the race until it got to a point where it was more than he thought it to be worth. The accounts of the firm were not included in the sale. The out-of-town firms that were considering the purchase of the factory did not make a bid. It is not known what will be done with the property by the present owners.

AMUSEMENTS

At the Vandet tonight will be shown the new film, "The Octoroon," a highly and intensely interesting story. The Mayme DeRussell Co. will talk the picture "Blue Bonnet," a thrilling story of Salvation Army life. Miss Clara Gregg will sing an illustrated song.

"Little Cyril, the Runaway," and "He Can't Lose Wife's Ma" are the titles of the subjects to be shown at the Grand theater tonight. The second picture is a scream and stands in the list of comies. The first is an interesting story subject. Miss Iva Brown will sing "Good Night."

The excellent bill offered at the New Palace theater last night pleased a large and enthusiastic crowd at all of the shows. The two subjects, "The Lure of the Gown" and "I Did it Mamma," will be shown tonight. Jack Surat will sing the illustrated song, "Strolling," and in addition a new popular hit ballad.

The great Chicago success, "A Broken Idol," one of the best musical comedies written in years, will be the attraction at the Auditorium in Connersville next Monday evening. No doubt it will attract a large number of Rushville play-goers. Connersville is getting many excellent productions, not as many as Indianapolis, but the same class shows. Next Thursday night they have "The Great Divide," one of the strongest plays ever written by an American. Those who have not seen this play have lost one-third of a full theatrical education. What will probably interest Rushville people more than either of the two shows mentioned is "Polly of the Circus" which will be at the Auditorium next Wednesday night. The story of the play has been running in the Daily Republican and many people are "just crazy" to see the play. A big crowd will probably go from here on Wednesday night. In the three offerings of the week play-goers have a menu to order from that runs from soup to zo-zodont. Rushville people can now order tickets by mail and leave here at 7:50 o'clock, arriving at the theater in ample time before a curtain.

STOMACH LIVER LUNGS

Each of the chief organs of the body is a link in the Chain of Life. A chain is no stronger than its weakest link, the body no stronger than its weakest organ. If there is weakness of stomach, liver or lungs, there is a weak link in the chain of life which may snap at any time. Often this so-called "weakness" is caused by lack of nutrition, the result of weakness or disease of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. Diseases and weaknesses of the stomach and its allied organs are cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. When the weak or diseased stomach is cured, diseases of other organs which seem remote from the stomach but which have their origin in a diseased condition of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, are cured also.

The strong man has a strong stomach.
Take the above recommended "Discovery" and you may have a strong stomach and a strong body.

GIVEN AWAY.—Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, new revised Edition, is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

POLLY of the CIRCUS

BY MARGARET MAYO
COPYRIGHT, 1908, BY DODD, MEAD AND COMPANY

"Bargain!" echoed Douglas. "What bargain?"
"Oh, please, Deacon Strong, please. I didn't mean to see him—I didn't, truly." She hardly knew what she was saying.
"What bargain?" demanded Douglas.
"She told me that you and her wasn't ever goin' to see each other ag'in!" roared Strong. "If I'd known she was goin' to keep on with this kind of thing you wouldn't have got off so easy."
"So that's it!" cried Douglas. It was all clear to him now. He recalled everything—her hysterical behavior, her laughter, her tears. "It was you who drove that child back to this." He glanced at Polly. The narrow shoulders were bent forward. The nervous little fingers were clasping and unclasping each other. Never before had she seemed so small and helpless.
"Oh, please, Mr. John, please don't make him any worse!"
"Why didn't you tell me?" he demanded.
"It would have done no good," she sobbed. "Oh, why—why won't you leave me alone?"
"It would have done all the good in the world. What right had he to send you back to this?"
"I had every right," said Strong stubbornly.

CAUGHT THE SLIP OF A GIRL IN HIS ARMS JUST AS SHE WAS ABOUT TO SINK FAINTING BENEATH THE HORSE'S HOOF.

"What do you mean by that?" shouted Strong.
"I mean that I stayed with you and your narrow minded congregation before because I believed you needed me. But now this girl needs me more. She needs me to protect her from just such injustice as yours."
"You'd better be protectin' yourself. That's my advice to you."
"I can do that without your advice."
"Maybe you can find another church with that circus ridin' girl a-bangin' round your neck."
"He's right," cried Polly. "You couldn't." She clung to the pastor in terrified entreaty. "You couldn't get another church. They'd never, never

"Polly!"
"Wait, Eloise! I'm going to ride!"
"You can't, not Barbarian! He don't know your turn."
"So much the better!" She seized the bridle from the frightened girl's hand.
"Polly!" shouted Douglas. He had followed her to the entrance.
"I must! I will!"
She flew into the ring before he could stop her. He took one step to follow her.
"You'd better let her alone and get out of here," said Strong. His voice was like a firebrand to Douglas. He turned upon him, white with rage.
"You drove her to this." His fists were clinched. He drew back to strike.

forgive you. It's no use. You've got to let me go! You've got to!"
"Listen, Polly." He drew her toward him. "God is greater than any church or creed. There's work to be done everywhere—his work."
"You'll soon find out about that," thundered Strong.
"So I will," answered Douglas, with his head thrown high. "This child has opened a new world to me. She has shown me a broader, deeper humanity. She and I will find the way together."
"It won't be an easy one, I'll promise you that." Strong turned to go.
"I'm not looking for the easy way," Douglas called after him; then he turned to draw Polly's arm within his, but Polly had slipped from his side to follow the deacon.
"Oh, please, Deacon Strong, please!" she pleaded. "You won't go away like that. He'll be all right if you'll only wait. I'm not coming back. I'm not—honestly. I'm going on with the show tonight, and I'm going this time forever."

"You are going to stay here with me!" cried Douglas.
"No, no, Mr. John! I've made up my mind, and I won't be to blame for your unhappiness." She faced him firmly now. "I don't belong to your world, and I don't want to try any more. I'm what he called me—I'm a circus riding girl. I was born in the circus, and I'll never change. That's my work—riding—and it's yours to preach. You must do your work, and I'll do mine."
She started toward the ring. Eloise and Barbarian were already waiting at the entrance.
"Eloise!" She took one step toward her, then stopped at the sound of Barbarian's voice.
"Ladies and gentlemen," he called, "although we are obliged to announce that our star rider, Miss Polly, will not appear tonight, we offer you in her place an able substitute, Mlle. Eloise, on her black, untamed horse Barbarian."
Eloise put her hands on the horse's back to mount.
"No, no," cried Polly.
The other girl turned in astonishment at the agony in her voice.

Jim came from behind the wagons just in time to catch the uplifted arm. "Leave him to me. This ain't no parson's job." The pastor lowered his arm, but kept his threatening eyes on the deacon's face.
"Where's Polly?" asked Jim.
"In there!" Douglas pointed toward the main tent without turning his head. He was still glaring at the deacon and breathing hard.

RUNNING BATTLE IN CITY OF CHURCHES

Brooklyn the Scene of Bloody Street Tragedy.

New York, April 15.—Andrea Gambino, a young Italian barber, who three years ago killed a man with two loads from a shotgun, was killed last night in a running battle with three countrymen through Brooklyn streets, while several thousand persons looked on.

Pietro Zarcone, a butcher, told the police that Gambino approached him and demanded $50 under penalty of death. The Brooklyn branch of the Italian detective bureau credits Gambino with a conspicuous Black Hand record.

Zarcone refused to pay the blackmail and instead drew a revolver. Gambino also drew a pistol and the battle began. Zarcone was joined by two friends, and all of them fully armed, pursued Gambino, firing as they ran. Gambino emptied his revolver twice at his pursuers during the four blocks of the chase and as he dropped dead with seven bullets in his body, in front of his home in Fifth avenue, his young wife and a great crowd saw the three pursuers overtake him and beat his skull in with the butts of their revolvers.

As a policeman broke through the crowd Zarcone's two friends escaped. He was arrested. The crowd, maddened by the assault on the dead body, tried to take Zarcone from the officer, and for a moment it looked as if there would be a riot. But more policemen quickly arrived and beat the crowd back and Zarcone was taken to the station.

AN EASTER WEDDING.

Miss Anna Butler, of Manilla, and Mr. Henry Hartman, were quietly married last Sunday evening. Miss Anna is very popular there, having lived there almost all the time. Mr. Hartman is a popular young man of Indianapolis. The bride wore a white and blue over lace trousseau. The marriage occurred at 5 o'clock, and Mr. and Mrs. Hartman came to Rushville on the evening train, then went to the terminal and went to Indianapolis where they will reside. None of their many friends knew they were in Rushville at the time, as only the nearest of relatives and friends were invited to the wedding.

BATTLE FOR COAL FIELD

The Rock Island Crowd and the Steel Trust at War.

BOTH NEED BIG CENTRAL MINES

The Indiana-Illinois Coal Field Proves a Bone of Contention Between Great Rival Interests.—The Steel Trust Needs the Coal for Gary Plant, While the Rock Island Folks Find it Equally Important to Control the Field and Are at Present Masters of the Situation.

Terre Haute, Ind., April 15.—The "Rock Island crowd" has called H. C. Frick's bluff and the "crowd's" representatives have perfected a deal by which thirty mines and vast acreage of coal lands in the Indiana-Illinois field are under their control. The steel trust desires this field from which to feed its furnaces at Gary. It is the nearest to Gary of all coal fields.

The Dering merger company people, who are of the Rock Island interests, several weeks ago offered the Dering fourteen mines, and some others to the trust and the sale was about to go through when Frick overruled his associates in the trust and declared the deal off. Yoakum, the Rock Island magnate, went to him to exert his pressure and it was reported that Frick "even told Yoakum where to head in." Then Frick sailed for Europe.

There were strained relations between the Dering company and the trust and a receiver was appointed for the mining company and the court was told in the application for a receiver that the trust was withholding payment of $213,000 for coal sold to the Illinois Steel company and the American Steel and Wire company, subsidiary companies of the trust. The latter had tried to use this means for coercive purposes. In Judge Kohl-saat's court in Chicago on Monday an agreement was made by which the two steel companies paid $201,000 on the two bills.

It is predicted that as a result of the deal now just perfected the Dering receivership will soon be dissolved. The deal includes the leasing of the Dering mines to the Brazil Block Coal company on such terms as will give better value to the Dering stock and bonds. Instead of "heading in" the Dering people have gone ahead with a plan by which the steel trust will have to pay still higher prices for the properties Mr. Frick said were offered at such big figures that he would not consider them.

Stop That Cold

To check early colds or Grippe with "Preventics" means sure defeat for Pneumonia. To stop a cold with Preventics is safer than to let it run and be obliged to cure it afterwards. To be sure, Preventics will cure even a deeply seated cold, but taken early—at the sneeze stage—they break, or head off these early colds. That's surely better. That's why they are called Preventics. Preventics are little Candy Cold Cures. No Quinine, no physic, nothing sickening. Nice for the children—and thoroughly safe too. If you feel chilly, if you sneeze, if you ache all over, think of Preventics. Promptness may also save half your usual sickness. And don't forget your child, if there is feverishness, night or day. Herein probably lies Preventics' greatest efficiency. Sold in 5c boxes for the pocket, also in 25c boxes of 48 Preventics. Insist on your druggists giving you

Taylor Declines Effort to Force Him into Candidacy.

Indianapolis, April 15.—While William L. Taylor, on returning from New York, declared that he was not a candidate for the mayoralty nomination and that he would not be, Republican leaders, who have been looking on Mr. Taylor as the man who can best lead the race in the city campaign, have not lost hope. Mr. Taylor declared that his state of mind in regard to the mayoralty situation had not changed. He added that he was not a candidate and would not be, but did not say that he would refuse to accept the nomination. Some of the knowing ones declare that Mr. Taylor will eventually be the Republican candidate. Everything is being planned in that direction. Organization men and business men will continue to put the case up to Mr. Taylor in the strongest way possible and are persisting in the belief that he finally will listen to an appeal. The refusal of Mr. Taylor to say now that he will enter the race means that the city political situation in both the Democratic and the Republican party will continue to remain in an uncertain state.

Clifford Kealing, an attorney, says that he will between now and Sunday file a suit in one of the county courts to enjoin the playing of the baseball game scheduled for Washington Park Sunday, and that his clients would supply a bond and ask for a restraining order against the game. He said the game would be attacked on the plea that the baseball law is not constitutional and that Sunday games will be detrimental to the welfare of the city. The attorney declined to name his clients in the case further than to say that the matter came to him through some East Side church people. He will not represent the executive committee chosen through the Indianapolis Ministerial Association to fight the matter, he said.

Goshen People Who Saw Weston in 1867 Greet Him Again.

Goshen, Ind., April 15.—Edward Payson Weston, the veteran walker, greeted the committee of Goshen business men who met him two miles east of the city with a cheerful greeting.

EDWARD PAYSON WESTON.

The arrival of Weston had been anticipated by many Goshen citizens, and, notified by telephone from Millersburg of his approach, they gathered in the business district. There were many Goshen citizens in the crowd who had seen Weston when he passed through here in 1867.

NOTABLE BANQUET

New York Council of Civic Alliance Gets Together.

New York, April 15.—The inaugural banquet of the New York council of the American Civic alliance in the Plaza hotel tonight will bring together 300 men and women representing the important activities of the nation and interested in the solution of civic problems. The banquet celebrates the organization of the New York branch of the alliance.

Baron Kogoro Takahira, the Japanese ambassador, and Dr. Wu Ting Fang, the Chinese minister, have promised to deliver addresses at the banquet.

New Trial for Glass.

San Francisco, Cal., April 15.—The district court of appeals has granted a new trial to Louis Glass, vice-president of the Pacific States Telegraph and Telephone company. Glass was the first man convicted in the bribery graft cases and sentenced to five years in the penitentiary. The new trial is granted upon the ground that certain instructions were given to the jury by the trial judge and upon errors in connection with the admission of certain evidence in the case.

Kills His Wife's Caller.

Indianapolis, April 15.—Elmer Ginn, twenty-one years old, shot and killed William Walker, twenty-five, in a room occupied by his wife in a boarding house at 602 East Market street last night. Mrs. Ginn was present during the scuffle, which ended in the death of Walker, being hidden in terror under a bed in the room. Ginn believed his wife was too friendly with Walker. Ginn was arrested.
